Funeral of Robert E. Parker Was Held Saturday.

The funeral of Robert E. Parker, who died Wednesday night of Bright's disease, was held from his late home on School street Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Masonic fraternity having charge of the service. Rev. G. O. Howe, chaplain of the Phoenix lodge, officiated, making a few remarks and a prayer, and the ritual of the Masonic lodge was observed at the cemetery. The bearers were also from that lodge. Mr. Parker was born in Canada, March 3, 1847, the son of George and Anna Parker. Until he was 21 years of age, he lived in Franklin, coming from there here, where he has since lived, and for the last forty years in the same house in which he died. Mr. Parker married Beulah D. Back, who died ten years ago. He is survived by two brothers, L. F. and Elmer E. Parker, of Waterbury, Conn., and a step-daughter, Mrs. Lula Lapine of Newport, who was with him through his illness.

Resinol Surely Heals Sick Skins

When you know physicians have prescribed Resinol for over 20 years in the treatment of eczema and other itching, burning, unsightly skin eruptions, and have written thousands of reports saying: "It is my regular prescription for itching," "Resinol has produced brilliant results," "The result it gave was marvelous in one of the worst cases of eczema," etc., etc., doesn't it make you feel, "This is the treatment I can rely on for MY skin-trouble?"

When Resinol Ointment touches itching skins, the itching usually stops and healing begins. With the aid of Resinol Soap, it almost always clears away eczema, ringworm, pimples, or other distressing eruption quickly, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Sold by all druggists.

Use Resinol Soap regularly and you will be astonished to find how quickly it soothes and cleanses the pores, and leaves the complexion clear and fresh.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"The Road to Happiness" at the Barre Opera House To-night

Another big New York success which the Champlin Comedy company will present at the opera house to-night is William Hodges' last year's tremendous rural comedy success, "The Road to Happiness." The four acts take place in a northern New York village, a semi rural community, where Whitman is a carpenter by day and toils over his law books at night. Something of the youth of Abraham Lincoln is said to be reflected in the character of this sturdy young villager and would-be lawyer, "Jim Whitman."

The love romance of Whitman is involved in the mystery of a little baby foundling left on the doorstep of the squire, the village magnate. The squire accuses his step-daughter with its motherhood; Whitman comes to her defense. There is a village feud with many exciting episodes—the most of the body—are quickly overcome by urging the liver to action and keeping the bowels free of poison. Take Cascarets to-night and you will wake up with a clear head and your cold will be gone. Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember the quickest way to get rid of colds is one or two Cascarets at night to cleanse the system. Get a 10-cent box at any drug store. Don't forget the children. They relish this candy cathartic, and it is often all that is needed to drive a cold from their little systems.—Adv.

exciting being that in which the squire's party tries to tar and feather Whitman.

A magnificent production has been provided for this play by Mr. Champlin, so as to give to the proper rural atmosphere. To-morrow evening, "The Girl He Couldn't Buy"—adv.

Unwittingly Kind.

Cholly Ayres—Yes, since the Parkers lost their money I have stopped calling there. Miss Keen—That is very kind of you. It ought to cheer them up a whole lot.—Baltimore Sun.

Good Impulses.

A mere good impulse that does not result in good works is rather worse than useless, for if not carried out in deed it has a reaction instead of an action as its outcome.

Happiness at least is not solitary.

It joys to communicate; it loves others, for it depends on them for its existence.

Cured of Worms

Familiar signs of worms in children are:

Deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red spots.

Trade Mark sticking out on tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever. If your child shows any of these symptoms, start using Dr. True's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, at once.

"My little son is gaining every day, and I think more of Dr. True's Elixir than all other such medicines put together," writes Mrs. Ida Gagnon of Manchester, N. H.

WHERE ARE MY CHILDREN?

This is the Photoplay now playing to the utmost capacity at Majestic Theatre, Boston. Now in its fourth month.

This is the Photoplay that is turning thousands away from three theatres in New York City. Now in its fifth month.

This is the Photoplay that broke all records in Providence last three weeks. Thousands were turned away, unable to gain admission.

So much stress, deservedly or undeservedly, has been laid upon the disagreeable or unpleasant features of this wonderful play that it is well to recall that, after all, its moral is THE TRIUMPH OF MOTHER LOVE. The District Attorney's Wife, after her persistent avoidance of the pains and responsibilities of maternity, comes at last to the realization of its great, its holy meaning.

That she, on account of her foolish, aye, her criminal acts, was enable to wear the glorious diadem of motherhood simply emphasizes the worth of that diadem. The happy mother of the eugenic baby, the no less happy mother of the "olive branches three," with three more calculated upon, are object lessons that cannot be overlooked, and these mothers become the natural objects of envy of the poor rich woman to whom maternity is denied.

Seats for all performances 25c-50c

Reserve Seats sold for the 2.15 and 7 o'clock performances. Beware of sidewalk ticket speculators.

NO CHILDREN ADMITTED—And so, "motherhood triumphant" becomes the oriflame of "Where Are My Children?"
